

Heath Myers

Leadership Associate

Heath Myers is a professional leadership facilitator, presenter and coach, with a natural talent for motivating and inspiring growth and development.

With a Bachelor Degree in Business (Marketing), Heath's initial career was defined by success in sales, marketing and specialised account & product management. Heath progressed into the field of training and development, gaining more than 13 years' experience in lecturing business and marketing qualifications at a tertiary level.

With additional qualifications in Executive Coaching and NLP together with over 8 years' experience in coaching professionals, designing & facilitating personal development packages for both groups and individuals. Heath now focuses on corporate process facilitation and organisational development, specialising in behavioural change, adaptive leadership and emotional intelligence.

Organisations are dynamic systems of people excelling towards a common purpose to reach their highest collective potential. How you take up your role has a direct effect on the organisations ability to achieve that purpose.

His strength is to help people feel more confident, motivated, empowered, focused and on task with direction and purpose. Heath's approach is results focused, assisting organisations and individuals to enhance performance, optimise wellbeing and reach their highest potential through mental, emotional and behavioural development.

Heath has delivered immersive leadership program to a diverse range of blue-chip organisations including; Metro Trains, Bupa, ANZ, KPMG, Melbourne Water, NAB, BP, ME Bank, Superpartners, Bristol-Myers Squibb, RACV, WorkSafe Victoria, Iron Mountain, Gilead Sciences, City of Hume and the City of Greater Dandenong.
